

Search Institute's most recent research has expanded to demonstrate a correlation between the number of assets a young person experiences and their involvement in a total of 24 risk-taking behaviors.

Here are the 24 risk behaviors studied in the most recent assets' survey:

- Alcohol abuse: Frequent use
- Alcohol abuse: Binge drinking
- Tobacco use: cigarettes
- Tobacco use: smokeless tobacco
- Use of Inhalants
- Marijuana use
- Other drug use
- Driving and alcohol: Drunk driving
- Driving and alcohol: Riding with a drunk driver
- Sexual intercourse
- Anti-social behavior: Shoplifting
- Anti-social behavior: Vandalism
- Anti-social behavior: Police trouble
- Violence: Hit someone
- Violence: Physically hurt someone
- Violence: Used a weapon
- Violence: Group/gang fighting
- Violence: Carried a weapon
- Violence: Threatened physical harm to someone
- School truancy
- Gambling
- Eating disorders
- Depression
- Attempted suicide

The Power of Assets to Protect

